PASTOR'S PAGE

The St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish bulletin is not only a medium for announcements and reminders. It is an instrument for Catholic action! This page is what it is all about. Here, the pastor makes parishioners aware of issues concerning parish life, or Diocesan life, or current Catholic issues. He then invites every faithful to action for the benefit of the whole Mystical Body of Christ, the Church.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Praise the Lord! Thank you, Lord!

Yes! To God, we give our praises and thanksgiving! Pope Francis just visited us; Junipero Serra is now our saint, and I am now in my 14th month of serving you!

I am always grateful to the Lord for all of you. You care for your priest, and you love your priest. Thank you so much! In return, with God's help, I'll do my best to stay healthy and to serve you better.

If there is something positive happening in our parish, I don't take all the credits for that. What you are enjoying is a product of team effort. It is the fruit of a collaborative ministry with God as the Leader!

What are these groups that collaborate?

To name a few, when it comes to our life of prayer and worship, here are the groups that work together. The Liturgy Committee helps the pastor plan for the various liturgical celebrations throughout the liturgical year. The Environment Committee physically and appropriately prepares the church for the liturgical seasons. The Music Ministry devotes several days for rehearsals to deliver well the songs & music on Sunday Mass. The Lectors and Commentators prepare for the readings, introductions, and announcements. The Sacristan readies the bread, wine, Sacred Books, etc. The Sacred Linens Laundry Group ensures that there's a clean supply of Sacred Linens for all the Masses. The Altar servers assist the priest at the altar. The Ushers and Greeters committee members welcome the faithful as they enter the church. The catechists for the Children's Liturgy of the Word help kids understand the Sunday readings in a child-understandable language. So you see, one Sunday Mass involves so many people.

Aside from the Sunday Mass, which is the summit of our parish life, our church deals also with the pastoral and the temporal aspects. Two advisory groups help the pastor. The Parish Pastoral Council advises about the pastoral life and issues, and the Parish Finance Council advises about managing well the finances of the parish. Under the Finance Council, two (2) specialized committees operate. First, the Properties Committee. It monitors proper maintenance of the parish buildings, lots, facilities. Second, the Fundraising Committee. It coordinates particular groups' fundraising events for parish operations or parish projects. Examples of these groups are the Annual Ministries Appeal, Annual International Festival, All-you-can-eat Pancake Breakfast, Oven-cooked Chicken Sales, Tamales Sales, etc.

A vital core service of the parish is the Faith Formation Program and administration of Sacraments. In our parish context, the sacraments are administered only by the priest. In Faith Formation Ministry, the key players are the parents and volunteer catechists together with the pastor and administrative assistant. They coordinate to prepare kids, teens, and adults to receive their First Sacraments.

Any parish will not be complete without the Outreach Ministries. Here in St. Elizabeth's we have the People's Kitchen, the Bereavement Committee, Ministry to the Homebound, and the Sunday Hospitality. These groups are doing a superb service to our community.

There are still many parish groups not mentioned here. As of last May 2015, Pentecost Sunday, there are thirty-two (32) groups active in our church. All of which are served by dedicated volunteers. Without these volunteers, I could have been long dead :-).

Lastly, we should not forget all those people who in many ways have donated their time, talents, and treasures to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish. Though they are not members of any parish ministry or committee, they generously share themselves with us.

What then do I ask from you?

If you know somebody doing what I have described above...

1. please don't forget to thank them, or to hug them, and to congratulate them for a job well done. They are the treasures of our parish. They are the ones who help us deliver needed services to all of you faithful.
2. Moreover, I invite you to pray for them, to pray the Holy Rosary or Divine Mercy for them, and most of all to offer a Mass for them.

Lastly, as I pray for you and bring your needs before our loving and merciful God, please pray for me too. I need all the prayers you can give me.

Thank you and God bless you and all those who are dear to you.

Love & prayers in Christ,
Fr. Joey

This page is dedicated to our parish ministries and committees.

Every Sunday, an article or letter about a parish ministry or a committee will be featured.

To all ministry & committee chief servants, this is an opportunity for you to let our parish community know about the service your group does.

It is also a way to recruit new members.

Please submit your article or letter in English or Spanish to fjjoeyseasparishlo@gmail.com for approval and editing. First come, first served. Thank you.

My Dear Friends in Christ,

About the ministry of Communion to the Homebound: I cannot begin to tell you how blessed I feel that I am able to bring Communion to those in our community who cannot attend Mass. There is something so wonderful and truly holy in each of the beautiful souls I am privileged to visit. When I was first asked to bring Communion to a friend and fellow parishioner, I felt unworthy, scared and even ridiculous because I didn't know the first thing about bringing Communion to the homebound. Since then I have learned so much!

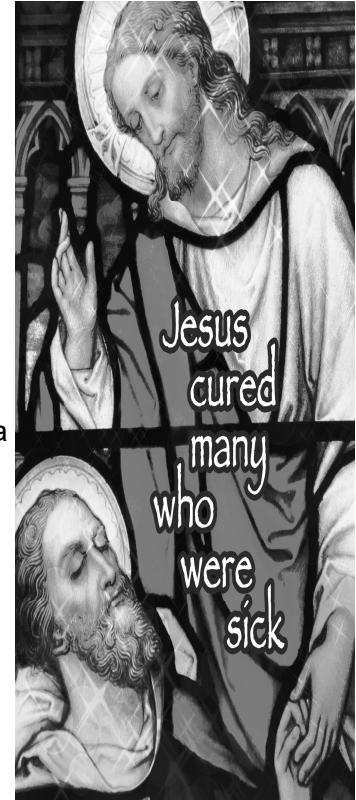

I have learned that life is not just following prescribed laws and rubrics, but also living completely; trying to love fully; and appreciating what God has placed in my life as a gift to me. Those I have visited and now visit have helped me understand this. They are people who know they will never again walk without help; who need oxygen throughout the day; who know they are dying. Yet they are positive people. Suffering can temper the heart and bring great fortitude, compassion and wisdom. I constantly see this in the people I bring Communion to. I know I am there to minister to them, to bring our parish to them, and to share Christ, but when I began I never dreamed how much they would minister to me in ways that seem to heal the small wounds in my own soul. I thank God for bringing this special task to me. I am grateful to Father Joey for allowing me to continue in this ministry.

To those of you I visit: thank you for allowing me to see the face of Christ in you and to feel His loving embrace through you. Some of you have said you fear you are a burden to others. You are not; you are precious. Through your prayers you touch our parish and intercede for us. You may not remember the prayers we grew up with, but God knows what is in your heart. Through your kind words, letters, and phone calls you bless family and friend alike. I am so appreciative of our visits and your friendship and that of the family you may gather when we are together. Please pray with me that more of our Brothers and Sisters will heed God's call to continue this ministry. Thank you and may God bless you.

Heather
