PASTOR'S PAGE

The St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish bulletin is not only a medium for announcements and reminders. It is an instrument for Catholic action! This page is what it is all about. Here, the pastor makes parishioners aware of issues concerning parish life, or Diocesan life, or current Catholic issues. He then invites every faithful to action for the benefit of the whole Mystical Body of Christ, the Church.

MEDITATIONS ON MERCY

from the USCCB

<http://www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/how-we-teach/new-evangelization/jubilee-of-mercy/meditations-on-mercy.cfm>

Throughout the Jubilee of Mercy, the USCCB will be posting monthly reflections based on Scripture passages that Pope Francis uses in his Bull, Misericordiae vultus (MV). By beginning with a scripture passage and a reference to paragraphs in Misericordiae vultus, each reflection offers a way to more deeply embrace the call to embody mercy that is asked of every Christian. These reflections can be done on your own, with your family, or with small groups in the parish.

DECEMBER 2015

Lk 6:36-38; MV, nos. 13-14

"Be merciful, just as [also] your Father is merciful. Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you."

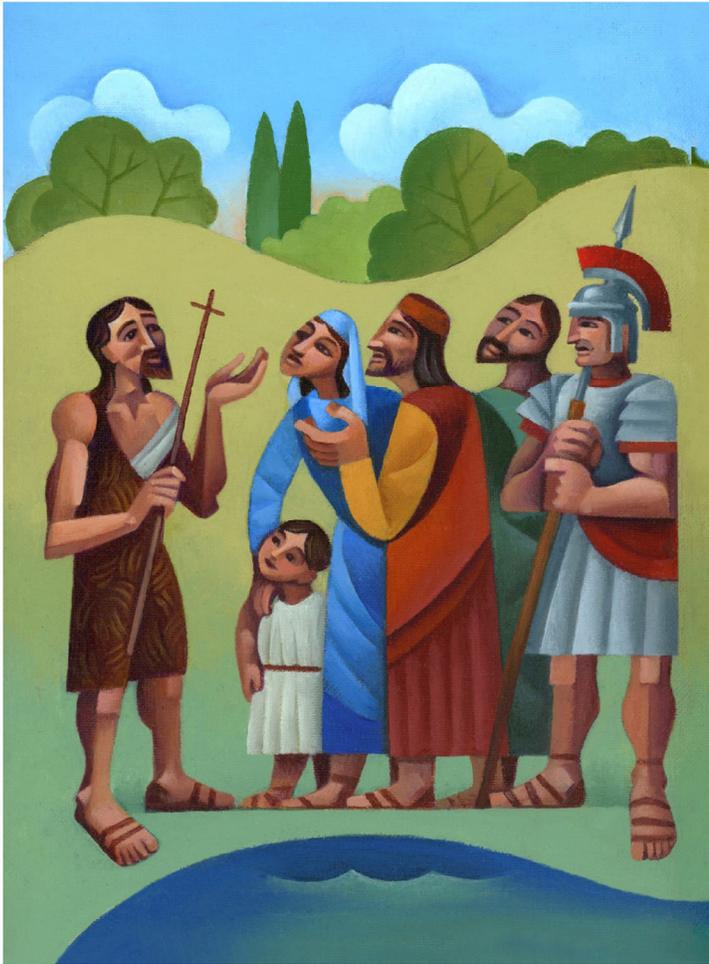

The Jubilee of Mercy begins this month! As we strive to live out the mercy and love of God, we should take heart in the motto for the Jubilee of Mercy, "Merciful Like the Father" (MV, nos. 13-14). What does it mean to be merciful like the Father—how is God merciful? Throughout Scripture, we see many examples of God's mercy, such as his judgment of individuals and nations. Additionally, powerful examples are found in God's salvific actions throughout history—in the history of Israel in the Old Testament, in the prophets, in the life, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Christ, in the sending of the Holy Spirit to the Church at Pentecost, etc. Mercy is not just an act of clemency for those who have done wrong. It is a way of life that is manifested in the compassion, love, and joy we see that God has for all creation.

While it is easy to see how God is merciful through the witness of the Scriptures and the life of the Church, it is sometimes challenging for us to apply it to our daily actions. How do we live out what Christ calls us to in Scripture? Our ability to live out this motto is dependent on our accepting God's superabundant love and mercy that he pours out on us. Once we are nourished with God's mercy and allow his merciful love to transform us, we are better able to show others this merciful love (MV, no. 14). Adopting a merciful attitude is not simply a spiritual action; it also includes physical acts that witness to God's love. Luke 6:37-38 provides us with examples of how our actions can reflect the way that God treats us: through not judging or condemning, by forgiving others, and by giving generously to others (MV, no. 14). However, our actions of mercy are not simply things we do so that we will be judged worthy by God. They are actions that flow from our embrace of God's mercy and love for us. By showing mercy and love to others, we illustrate how we have accepted God's merciful love and how we want to continue this outpouring of mercy (MV, no. 14).

Reflection Questions

1. Where do I see God's love and mercy acting in my own life? What is one way that I can receive these gifts from God and acknowledge them in my own spiritual life?
2. What does it mean for me, for my family, or for my parish, to be merciful as God is merciful? How can I/we concretely express this merciful attitude that is grounded on the love of God?

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Constant Love

Good and loving God,
in your mercy, you rescued your daughter
Zion from sin and death.

Indeed, you are our Savior.

Your constant love for your people is unfathomable

and penetrates the depths of our souls.
Though your love for us is strong,
we often stray from your embrace
and indulge in our desires,
ignoring the needs of our sisters and brothers.

By the power of the Holy Spirit, transform our hearts and cleanse us from
our greed and dishonesty,
so that, on that final day, we may be counted among the righteous.

And like Zion, give us hearts of joy and erase our sadness and anxiety.

Give us voices to exalt and proclaim you,
the Holy One of Israel,
for your love has saved us and forever we give you thanks.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rejoice

Today's Readings: Zephaniah 3:14–18a; Isaiah 12:2–3, 4, 5–6; Philippians 4:4–7; Luke 3:10–18. Gaudete, the Latin word for rejoice, is employed on this Third Sunday of Advent. On Gaudete Sunday, we rejoice over the many blessings that God has bestowed upon us. It is a day to rejoice because, as noted in the First Reading and Responsorial Psalm, God is in our midst and has saved us from the enemy. Joy wells up from the depth of our hearts in response to God's love.

You might want to read the First Reading again as though you are being referenced. The last lines describe God's profound love for us; he takes delight in restoring us to life. How do you rejoice in God and how does your joy rouse others to live in Christ?

This week, we also continue to reflect on our relationship with Christ and our need for conversion of mind and heart. Read or listen to the Gospel again. Imagine yourself approaching John, as did the groups in the Gospel, and asking, "What should I do?" Based on how John responds to the crowds, the tax collectors, and the soldiers, what would he say to you? The tasks he gives to them have to do with being in right relationship. How must you change in order to be in right relationship? Think about your relationships with your family, friends, and children. Do your relationships reveal God's glory and lead people to a more intimate relationship with the Savior? In Baptism, we have been united to Christ, and through the power of the Holy Spirit, we have the grace to be transformed. Let us rejoice in God's love this week.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, December 14, 2015 Memorial of St. John of the Cross, Priest and Doctor of the Church

John of the Cross is a great model during this Advent season. Though not all of us are called to a life of asceticism, we are called to surrender ourselves to our loving God. In the darkness of his self-denial, John saw the Light of Lights. He was filled with hope for the coming of the Messiah and a desire to faithfully witness God's love. Use the psalm refrain as your prayer today. Like St. John, may Christ teach you the path of life. Today's Readings: Numbers 24:2–7, 15–17a; Psalm 25:4–5ab, 6 and 7bc, 8–9; Matthew 21:23–27.

Tuesday, December 15, 2015 Sinners Forgiven

The verse for the Gospel Acclamation asks the Lord to come quickly and forgive our sins. This short verse prepares us to hear the Gospel parable. Read the Gospel aloud and then ask yourself, “Do I respond more like the first son or the second son?” Jesus has come into the world so that sinners might be forgiven and have a share in eternal life. He points out that the outcasts of his day got the message but the religious leaders ignored “the way of righteousness.” Today's Readings: Zephaniah 3:1–2, 9–13; Psalm 34:2–3, 6–7, 17–18, 19 and 23; Matthew 21:28–32.

Wednesday, December 16, 2015 God's Reign

Today's Gospel highlights that the Reign of God is at hand. Jesus' healings are a sign that he is the Messiah, the fulfillment of God's promise. In the First Reading, the sovereign power of God is proclaimed—“I am the Lord, and there is no other.” Only God can save the oppressed and persecuted. What signs help you to know that God's reign is near? Today's Readings: Isaiah 45:6b–8, 18, 21c–25; Psalm 85:9ab and 10, 11–12, 13–14; Luke 7:18b–23.

Thursday, December 17, 2015

O Wisdom

Today marks a shift in our Advent preparations. The Scripture readings and the Liturgy of the Hours focus more directly on the coming of Christ. The “O” Antiphons begin today as well. The first antiphon, “O Wisdom,” calls upon Christ to teach us the way of salvation. As we learn from the psalm, the earth will be filled with justice and peace at the coming of the Messiah. Today's Readings: Genesis 49:2, 8–10, Psalm 72:1–2, 3–4ab, 7–8, 17; Matthew 1:1–17.

Friday, December 18, 2015

O Adonai

It is clear from today's readings that Jesus is the ruler of the House of Israel; he is the one who comes to rescue the poor and afflicted. As the prophet Jeremiah foretold, Jesus, the Lord of Justice, restores God's people and brings them home to rest securely in God's house. God is with us! He has shown his mighty power and saved us! As you light the Advent wreath tonight, ask yourself, “Am I ready?” Today's Readings: Jeremiah 23:5–8, Psalm 72:1–2, 12–13, 18–19; Matthew 1:18–25.

Saturday, December 19, 2015

O Root of Jesse

The First Reading and the Gospel share some similarities. Both women in these readings are barren and receive news that God will bless them with a child. These events show God's power and his desire for his people to be free. From the moment of conception, both Samson and John are consecrated to God. Each works to deliver God's people. Samson fights against the Philistines, and John announces the coming Messiah who causes kings to be silent. Christ is a sign of God's love to the nations. Today, return to your Jesse Tree, thanking God for his work in Jesus' family and yours. Today's Readings: Judges 13:2–7, 24–25a; Psalm 71:3–4a, 5–6ab, 16–17; Luke 1:5–25.

PRAYER FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees You sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.

Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

ALPHA CHRISTMAS TREE TAG

This time of year is a time of joy and hope but for some this is not so. To help spread the joy we have Alpha Gift tags are in the Christmas tree . It is every child's wish to receive something for Christmas. If you wish to help, please take one tag. You may drop off the gift in the Parish Office 1pm to 6pm, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday OR Sunday after Mass.

CHANGE FOR CHANGE TO BUY EQUIPMENTS IN MAKING TAMALES

Thank you for supporting our Change For Change program. To date, all the loose change you have put in the bucket have amounted to $500. Since we all like Tamales, the Parish Finance Council has decided to use the money to buy heavy duty mixer and steamer for cooking Tamales. With these equipments, our parish can have Tamales Sale Fundraiser at least twice a year. Our goal is to raise about $2,000 to cover equipment costs.
