My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, I invite all of you for more prayers for our state and her people. Please pray especially for the most vulnerable as I share with you the statement of the Catholic Bishops of California dated 12th October 2015 with regard to the state legalization of physician assisted suicide:

“The decision of California’s Legislature and Governor Brown to place Californians at risk by making it legal for a physician to prescribe a lethal dose of drugs makes a travesty of compassion for the sick, care of the poor and protection of our most vulnerable residents.

“As pastors and teachers, our first duty is to speak clearly and with conviction the truths of our faith so that our Catholic people will be able to understand the full teaching of the Church on end-of-life situations. That teaching provides great solace and consolation at the last moments of life to patients and those who care for them. A greater understanding and appreciation of our Catholic teaching can bring the peace and dignity we all seek as death approaches. The Catholic Church wishes to offer all Californians the beauty of our teaching on end-of-life circumstances and to promote palliative care and other real solutions.

“Concerned opponents of physician-assisted suicide have already started the process for a referendum. We affirm and support them in that decision. As citizens of this state, we all have the right and, we would emphasize, the duty to ensure that the voice of the people, especially those most vulnerable, is heard. This is also an opportunity for us to acknowledge the many women and men throughout the State who through their organizations and individually worked tirelessly and journeyed together in opposing physician assisted suicide in these past months. We thank them once again.

“Justice and promotion of the common good demand that every conceivable legal remedy to the unwise legalization of assisted suicide be given due consideration. We are in that process of such consideration now. As Pope Francis told a joint meeting of the U.S. Congress last month:

• See more at: http://www.usccb.org/news/2015/15-139.cfm

You are called to defend and preserve the dignity of your fellow citizens in the tireless and demanding pursuit of the common good, for this is the aim of all politics. A political society endures when it seeks, as a vocation, to satisfy common needs by stimulating the growth of all its members, especially those of greater risk. Legislative activity is always based on care for the people.

“We ask once again, where is the care when millions of Californians do not have access to affordable and compassionate health care? The low-cost alternative of a lethal dose of drugs is no alternative to proper and effective palliative care, pain management and other basic medical services.

Moreover, please read below the October 6 statement of Cardinal Sean O’Malley of Boston, chairman of the Committee on Pro-Life Activities of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB):

"Governor Brown's decision this week to sign a bill legalizing doctor-assisted suicide in California is a great tragedy for human life. As a result, in all the West coast states, seriously ill patients suffering from depression and suicidal feelings will receive lethal drugs, instead of genuine care to help alleviate that suffering.

The tragedy here is compounded by confusion among those who supported this law. For example, Governor Brown said he signed this law because it should not be a crime for a dying person in pain to end his life. But suicide itself is a tragedy, not a crime. The crime is for people in authority such as physicians to facilitate the deliberate deaths of other, more vulnerable people. That crime will now be permitted in California. And where such "assistance" is legal, most people taking the lethal drugs do so not because of pain but because they feel they are helpless and a "burden" on others. The state of California in effect is now confirming this judgment. A government that legalizes assisted suicide sends the terrible message Pope Francis has so eloquently warned us against, that there is such a thing as disposable people.

With the bishops of California I grieve for this deeply flawed action. I am sure the Catholic Church in this country will redouble its efforts to protect innocent life at its most vulnerable stages, and to promote palliative care and other real solutions for the problems and hardships of terminally ill patients and their families."

Ask the help of our Mother Mary, know your rights, remain vigilant, and protect our vulnerable loved ones from the great error of physician assisted suicide.

Fr. Joey

LECTORS & COMMENTATORS
by Jonniepat Mobley

For centuries only the priest and the deacon were permitted to read aloud from scripture at Mass. In the last century this privilege was extended to the laity. However, it is not only a privilege, it is a responsibility to proclaim the Word of God at Mass. There is also the role of commentator, the person who welcomes the congregation to the Mass and introduces the readings with a summary or brief commentary. At St. Elizabeth Ann Seton we are blessed with twelve lectors who act as readers and commentators. With twelve to fifteen Masses every month and three lectors needed per Mass, it is obvious we need more than twelve lectors.

Each month lectors sign up for the Masses at which they will read or act as commentator. They practice their reading during the week before the Masses they have chosen. This is a commitment of about fifteen minutes in addition to the Mass which they would be attending anyway. Then a schedule for the month is drawn up, distributed and posted. Lectors have a workbook which gives all the readings for the year with pronunciation guides and advice on vocal interpretation. There is a training session once a year where lectors gather to review procedures, discuss concerns and hear the latest in liturgical matters.

In the week before the Mass at which they are commentator, lectors receive the introductions to the readings I have written, so that they can rehearse them. They, along with the lectors who will read the scriptural passages, gather fifteen minutes before Mass. They meet with the sacristan, check the lectionary they will read from and review the Prayers of the Faithful. At the beginning of Mass the lectors process in with the presider and Eucharistic Ministers. The commentator is already at the lectern having welcomed all to the Mass.

Being a lector has brought me joy and a sense of contributing to the life of the parish. I can’t imagine not being active to the best of my ability, using the gifts the Holy Ghost has given me. I use the old fashioned name “Ghost” because He is, for me, a kindly haunting, always there to inspire and guide me.

THE ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON PARISH COMMUNITY PRAYS FOR THE ETERNAL REST OF

†Wayne Rankin
†Jim Stewart
†Michael Brito

OUR CONDOLENCES & PRAYERS TO THE FAMILY IN THIS MOMENT OF SORROW.
200. How are sins remitted?
976-980 and 984-985
The first and chief sacrament for the forgiveness of sins is Baptism. For those sins committed after Baptism, Christ instituted the sacrament of Reconciliation or Penance through which a baptized person is reconciled with God and with the Church.

201. Why does the Church have the power to forgive sins?
981-983 and 986-987
The Church has the mission and the power to forgive sins because Christ himself has conferred it upon her: “Receive the Holy Spirit, if you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained” (John 20:22-23).

202. What is the meaning of the term “body” (or “flesh”) and what importance does it have?
990 and 1015
The resurrection of the flesh is the literal formulation in the Apostles Creed for the resurrection of the body. The term “flesh” refers to humanity in its state of weakness and mortality. “The flesh is the hinge of salvation” (Tertullian). We believe in God the Creator of the flesh; we believe in the Word made flesh in order to redeem flesh; and we believe in the resurrection of flesh which is the fulfillment of both the creation and the redemption of the flesh.

203. What is meant by the “resurrection of the body”?
990
This means that the definitive state of man will not be one in which his spiritual soul is separated from his body. Even our mortal bodies will one day come to life again.

204. What is the relationship between the Resurrection of Christ and our resurrection?
998 and 1002-1003
Just as Christ is truly risen from the dead and now lives forever, so he himself will raise everyone on the last day with an incorruptible body. “Those who have done good will rise to the resurrection of life and those who have done evil to the resurrection of condemnation” (John 5:29).

205. What happens to our body and our soul after death?
992-1004 and 1016-1018
After death, which is the separation of the body and the soul, the body becomes corrupt while the soul, which is immortal, goes to meet the judgment of God and awaits its reunion with the body when it will rise transformed at the time of the return of the Lord. How the resurrection of the body will come about exceeds the possibilities of our imagination and understanding.

206. What does it mean to die in Christ Jesus?
1005-1014 and 1019
Dying in Christ Jesus means to die in the state of God’s grace without any mortal sin. A believer in Christ, following his example, is thus able to transform his own death into an act of obedience and love for the Father. “This saying is sure: if we have died with him, we will also live with him” (2 Timothy 2:11).

207. What is life everlasting?
1020 and 1051
Eternal life is that life which begins immediately after death. It will have no end. It will be preceded for each person by a particular judgment at the hands of Christ who is the Judge of the living and the dead. This particular judgement will be confirmed in the final judgment.

208. What is the particular judgment?
1021-1022 and 1051
It is the judgment of immediate retribution which each one after death will receive from God in his immortal soul in accord with his faith and his works. This retribution consists in entrance into the happiness of heaven, immediately or after an appropriate purification, or entry into the eternal damnation of hell.

209. What is meant by the term “heaven”?
1023-1026 and 1053
By “heaven” is meant the state of supreme and definitive happiness. Those who die in the grace of God and have no need of further purification are gathered around Jesus and Mary, the angels and the saints. They thus form the Church of heaven, where they see God “face to face” (1 Corinthians 13:12). They live in a communion of love with the Most Blessed Trinity and they intercede for us.

“True and subsistent life consists in this: the Father, through the Son and in the Holy Spirit, pouring out his heavenly gifts on all things without exception. Thanks to his mercy, we too, men that we are, have received the inalienable promise of eternal life.” (Saint Cyril of Jerusalem)

210. What is purgatory?
1030-1031 and 1054
Purgatory is the state of those who die in God’s friendship, assured of their eternal salvation, but who still have need of purification to enter into the happiness of heaven.

211. How can we help the souls being purified in purgatory?
1032
Because of the communion of saints, the faithful who are still pilgrims on earth are able to help the souls in purgatory by offering prayers in suffrage for them, especially the Eucharistic sacrifice. They also help them by almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance.

212. In what does hell consist?
1033-1035 and 1056-1057
Hell consists in the eternal damnation of those who die in mortal sin through their own free choice. The principal suffering of hell is eternal separation from God in whom alone we can have the life and happiness for which we were created and for which we long. Christ proclaimed this reality with the words, “Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire” (Matthew 25:41).

213. How can one reconcile the existence of hell with the infinite goodness of God?
1036-1037
God, while desiring “all to come to repentance” (2 Peter 3:9), nevertheless has created the human person to be free and responsible; and he respects our decisions. Therefore, it is the human person who freely excludes himself from communion with God if at the moment of death he persists in mortal sin and refuses the merciful love of God.

214. In what does the final judgment consist?
1038-1041 and 1058-1059
The final or universal judgment consists in a sentence of happiness or eternal condemnation, which the Lord Jesus will issue in regard to the “just and the unjust” (Acts 24:15) when he returns as the Judge of the living and the dead. After the last judgment, the resurrected body will share in the retribution which the soul received at the particular judgment.

215. When will this judgment occur?
1040
This judgment will come at the end of the world and only God knows the day and the hour.

216. What is the hope of the new heavens and the new earth?
1042-1050 and 1060
After the final judgment the universe itself, freed from its bondage to decay, will share in the glory of Christ with the beginning of “the new heavens” and a “new earth” (2 Peter 3:13). Thus, the fullness of the Kingdom of God will come about, that is to say, the definitive realization of the salvific plan of God to “unite all things in Christ, things in heaven and things on earth” (Ephesians 1:10). God will then be “all in all” (1 Corinthians 15:28) in eternal life.

COMMENTS ABOUT THE 2015 INT’L. FESTIVAL FROM NEWSPAPERS

1. From BAY NEWS, Oct. 1-14, 2015 issue: “...It’s one of the best and least known foodies of the year.” (with photos by Neil Farrell)

   “Over the weekend (of Sept. 27) I attended the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church International Festival in Los Osos.

   I had never heard of this saint until President Barack Obama gave Pope Francis, on his recent visit to the United States, the original key to her house in Maryland. The house is now a national shrine.

   What I found at the festival was a wonderful group of people from several ethnic groups celebrating their heritage with good food and entertainment.

   As I looked at the faces in the crowd, it reminded me of my heritage (Swiss, Swedish and German) and what a wonderful melting pot America has become.

   As refugees are resettled to America in the coming years, I hope we will welcome them as our ancestors had in the past.”
