PRAYER OF POPE FRANCIS TO MARY, HEALTH OF THE SICK

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.

At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of all, know what we need.

We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us:

He who took our sufferings upon Himself,

and bore our sorrows to bring us,

through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

23/24 MAY—2nd COLLECTION CATHOLIC COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGN

Through websites, social networks, television, radio, and print, the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) helps the Church spread the Gospel message through the media locally and nationally. Half of all donations to the CCC collected in your diocese stay in your diocese to support your local communications needs, such as radio and television programming and diocesan publications. Donations can be mailed to the SEAS parish office until May 29th.

24 MAY—5th ANNIVERSARY OF LAUDATO SI'

This is the 5th anniversary of the publication of the Encyclical Laudato si' by Pope Francis. In his video address to the world, he asks, "What kind of world do we want to leave to those who will come after us, to children who are growing up? Motivated by this question, I would like to invite you to participate in Laudato Si' Week from 16-24 May 2020. It is a global campaign on the occasion of the fifth anniversary of the encyclical letter Laudato si': On the care of our common home."

You can view his message on YouTube:

25 MAY—MEMORIAL DAY

We honor and mourn the military personnel who had died serving while serving in the United States Armed Forces:

We pray, God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride. Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters. Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

VENI, CREATOR SPIRITUS

The Ascension of the Lord marks the last week of the Easter Season, which ends next Saturday just before the Pentecost celebration of the coming of the Holy Spirit. We are invited to prepare our hearts for Pentecost by utilizing the hymn-prayer, Veni, Creator Spiritus, which may be said or sung daily as we individually prepare at home. (Hymn-prayer from USCCB)

From the ORDO:

"The weekdays after the Ascension through the Saturday before Pentecost is a time of preparation for the coming of the Holy Spirit. During these days the hymn, Veni, Creator Spiritus may fittingly be sung at Mass and the Hours, especially Vespers."

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home Shed a ray of light divine! Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!

Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below; In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill! Where you are not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from taint of ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew;

Wash the stains of guilt away: Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore And confess you, evermore
In your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end.
Amen. Alleluia.

ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME

LAUDATO SI'

"Praise be to you, my Lord."

"LAUDATO SI', mi Signore" – "Praise be to you, my Lord." These are the words that open Pope Francis' encyclical on ecology and care for God's creation. These words, quoting St. Francis of Assisi's beautiful canticle, remind us that our common home is like a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us.

Pope Francis' encyclical letter Laudato Si' was released in June 2015. Five years later, in 2020, Pope Francis invited all Catholics and people of good will to celebrate its fifth anniversary by protecting families and future generations through action to care for our common home. Here are themes that Pope Francis highlighted in Laudato Si' which require our urgent response today.

- A Moral and Spiritual Challenge. The ecological crisis, Pope Francis writes, is a summons to profound interior conversion—to renew our relationships with God, one another, and the created world.
- Care for God's Creation. God created the world and entrusted it to us as a gift. Now we have the responsibility to care for and protect it and all people, who are part of creation. Protecting human dignity is strongly linked to care for creation.
- We are All Connected. We are connected to the rest of the human family, to the created world, and to those who will come after us in future generations.
- Impact on the Poor. People in poverty have contributed least to climate change, yet they are disproportionately impacted by it. As a result of excessive use of natural resource by wealthy nations, those who are poor experience pollution, lack of access to clean water, hunger, and more.
- Called to Solidarity. We are one human family and have a shared responsibility for others and for creation. Wealthy countries have a responsibility to reduce consumption of non-renewal resources and should help poorer nations develop in sustainable ways.
- Technological and economic development must serve human beings and enhance human dignity, instead of creating an economy of exclusion, so that all people have access to what is needed for authentic human development.
- Supporting Life, Protecting Creation. Concern for nature is incompatible with failure to protect vulnerable human beings, such as unborn children, people with disabilities, or victims of human trafficking.
- A Time to Act. Pope Francis calls for a change in lifestyle and consumption. We can make important changes as individuals, families, and communities, and as civil and political leaders.
- Hope and Joy. "Injustice is not invincible" (no. 74) and we act knowing that we seek to live out God's vision of renewed relationships with God, ourselves, one another, and creation.

How You Can Respond

Each of us are called to take concrete steps – from reducing consumption to working for political change – to better care for creation. Here are some ideas.

1. Become more aware of our connectedness. Care for one another and creation includes understanding that "everything is connected" (no. 91) and that the economy, politics, community involvement, and technology all affect the future of the planet and humankind. How can we become more aware of our connectedness?
2. Changes to lifestyle and consumption habits can make a big difference. For example, get a re-usable water bottle, take shorter showers, walk, bike or take public transportation instead of driving, recycle, compost food waste, and buy energy efficient appliances.
3. Make changes institutionally at your parish, school, or workplace. For example, start recycling and composting, use washable dinnerware in cafeterias, share electronically instead of printing, do an energy audit, and install solar panels.
4. Support local efforts to solve environmental problems. Community groups around the country are working to make city, county, and state-wide changes that can make a big difference. Find out what is going on locally and get involved.
5. Contact your members of Congress to share Pope Francis' message and urge action to address climate change.

Prayer

Triune Lord, wondrous community of infinite love, teach us to contemplate you
in the beauty of the universe,
for all things speak of you.
Awaken our praise and thankfulness for every being that you have made.
Give us the grace to feel profoundly joined to everything that is.

God of love, show us our place in this world
as channels of your love
for all the creatures of this earth,
for not one of them is forgotten in your sight.

Enlighten those who possess power and money that they may avoid the sin of indifference, that they may love the common good,
advance the weak, and care for this world in which we live.
The poor and the earth are crying out.
O Lord, seize us with your power and light,
help us to protect all life,
to prepare for a better future,
for the coming of your Kingdom of justice, peace, love and beauty.
Praise be to you!
Amen.

SOBRE EL CUIDADO DE LA CASA COMÚN

LAUDATO SI'

“Alabado seas, mi Señor.”

“Laudato si’, mi Signore” – “Alabado seas, mi Señor”. Estas son las palabras que abren la encíclica del papa Francisco sobre la ecología y el cuidado de la creación de Dios. Estas palabras, que citan el hermoso cántico de san Francisco de Asís, nos recuerdan que nuestra casa común es como una hermana con quien compartimos nuestra vida y una hermosa madre que abre sus brazos para acogernos.

La carta encíclica Laudato Si’ del papa Francisco se publicó en junio de 2015. Cinco años después, en 2020, el papa Francisco invitó a todos los católicos y personas de buena voluntad a celebrar su quinto aniversario protegiendo a las familias y las generaciones futuras a través de la acción para cuidar nuestra casa común. He aquí los temas que el papa Francisco destacó en Laudato Si’ que requieren nuestra respuesta urgente hoy.

- Un desafío moral y espiritual. La crisis ecológica, escribe el papa Francisco, es una invocación a una profunda conversión interior: a renovar nuestras relaciones con Dios, entre nosotros y con el mundo creado.
- Cuidado de la creación de Dios. Dios creó el mundo y lo confió a nosotros como un don. Ahora tenemos la responsabilidad de cuidar y proteger a él y a todas las personas, que son parte de la creación. Proteger la dignidad humana está fuertemente ligado a cuidar de la creación.
- Todos estamos conectados. Estamos conectados con el resto de la familia humana, con el mundo creado, y con los que vendrán después de nosotros en las generaciones futuras.
- Impacto en los pobres. Las personas en situación de pobreza son las que menos han contribuido al cambio climático, y sin embargo se ven desproporcionadamente impactadas por este. Como resultado del uso excesivo de los recursos naturales por los países ricos, los pobres sufren contaminación, falta de acceso al agua potable, hambre y otros padecimientos.
- Llamados a la solidaridad. Somos una sola familia humana y tenemos una responsabilidad compartida por los demás y por la creación. Los países ricos tienen la responsabilidad de reducir el consumo de recursos no renovables y deben ayudar a las naciones más pobres a desarrollarse de manera sostenible.
- El desarrollo tecnológico y económico debe servir a los seres humanos y acrecentar la dignidad humana, en lugar de crear una economía de la exclusión, de modo que todas las personas tengan acceso a lo que se necesita para un auténtico desarrollo humano.
- Apoyar la vida, proteger la creación. La preocupación por la naturaleza es incompatible con la falta de protección a los seres humanos vulnerables, como los niños no nacidos, las personas discapacitadas o las víctimas de la trata de personas.
- Es hora de actuar. El papa Francisco insta a un cambio en el estilo de vida y el consumo. Podemos hacer cambios importantes como individuos, familias y comunidades, y como líderes civiles y políticos.
- Esperanza y alegría. “La injusticia no es invencible” (no. 74), y actuamos sabiendo que buscamos vivir la visión de Dios de relaciones renovadas con él, con nosotros mismos, entre nosotros y con la creación.

Cómo puedes responder

Cada uno de nosotros está llamado a dar pasos concretos —desde reducir el consumo hasta trabajar por el cambio político— para cuidar mejor de la creación. He aquí algunas ideas.

1. Cobra mayor conciencia de nuestra conexión. El cuidado mutuo y de la creación incluye la comprensión de que “todo está conectado” (no. 91) y que la economía, la política, la participación de la comunidad y la tecnología afectan, en conjunto, el futuro del planeta y de la humanidad. ¿Cómo podemos hacernos más conscientes de nuestra conexión?
2. Los cambios en el estilo de vida y los hábitos de consumo pueden constituir una gran diferencia. Por ejemplo, conseguir una botella de agua reutilizable; tomar duchas más cortas; caminar, desplazarse en bicicleta o tomar el transporte público en lugar de conducir; reciclar; compostar restos de alimentos, y comprar electrodomésticos eficientes.
3. Haz cambios a nivel institucional en tu parroquia, escuela o lugar de trabajo. Por ejemplo, implementar reciclaje y compostaje, utilizar vajilla lavable en las cafeterías, compartir electrónicamente en lugar de imprimir, hacer una auditoría energética, e instalar paneles solares.
4. Apoya esfuerzos locales para resolver problemas ambientales. En todo el país, grupos comunitarios están trabajando para hacer cambios en su ciudad, condado y estado que pueden constituir una gran diferencia. Averigua lo que está pasando a nivel local y participa.
5. Ponte en contacto con tus congresistas para compartir el mensaje del papa Francisco y urgir a la acción para abordar el cambio climático.

Oración

Señor Uno y Trino,
comunidad preciosa de amor infinito,
enseñanos a contemplarte
en la belleza del universo, donde todo nos habla de ti.
Despierta nuestra alabanza y nuestra gratitud
por cada ser que has creado.
Danos la gracia de sentirnos íntimamente unidos con todo lo que existe.

Dios de amor, muéstranos nuestro lugar en este mundo como instrumentos de tu cariño por todos los seres de esta tierra, porque ninguno de ellos está olvidado ante ti.

Ilumina a los dueños del poder y del dinero para que se guarden del pecado de la indiferencia,
amen el bien común, promuevan a los débiles,
y cuiden este mundo que habitamos.
Los pobres y la tierra están clamando:
Señor, tómanos a nosotros con tu poder y tu luz,
para proteger toda vida,
para preparar un futuro mejor,
para que venga tu Reino
de justicia, de paz, de amor y de hermosura.
Alabado seas.
Amén.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there And unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Jesús mío, creo que estás realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento, te amo sobre todas las cosas, y te deseo en el interior de mi alma. Ya que en este momento no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón; estando dentro de mí, yo te abrazo y me uno todo a Ti. No permitas nunca que me separe de Ti. Amen.

PRAYER FOR AFTER COMMUNION: ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me. O Good Jesus, hear me. Within your wounds hide me. Permit me not to be separated from you. From the wicked one, defend me. At the hour of my death, call me and bid me close so that with your that with your angels and saints I may praise you for ever and ever. Amen.

Alma de Cristo, santifícame. Cuerpo de Cristo, sálvame. Sangre de Cristo, embriágame. Agua del costado de Cristo, lávame. Pasión de Cristo, confórtame. ¡Oh, buen Jesús!, óyeme. Dentro de tus llagas, escóndeme. No permitas que me aparte de Ti. Del maligno enemigo, defiéndeme. En la hora de mi muerte, llámame. Y mándame ir a Ti. Para que con tus santos te alabe. Por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.
