O Father, the first rule of our dear Savior's life was to do Your Will. PRAYER OF POPE FRANCIS TO MARY, HEALTH OF THE SICK

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.

At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of all, know what we need.

We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us:

He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Amen.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Lord Is My Shepherd

The LORD is my shepherd;
there is nothing I lack.
In green pastures he makes me
lie down;
to still waters he leads me.
He guides me along right paths
for the sake of his name.
Even though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
for you are at my side with your rod
and your staff that give me courage.
I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff comfort me.
—Psalm 23:1-4

Good Shepherd Sunday

Today's readings: Acts 2:14a, 36-41; Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6 (1); 1 Peter 2:20b-25; John 10:1-10. The Fourth Sunday of Easter is often referred to as Good Shepherd Sunday. As part of John 10 is proclaimed, we hear Jesus boldly claim his identity as the Good Shepherd. Since young children are especially drawn to this image of Jesus, faith formation programs explore it to help children discover the voice of God calling each of his sheep by name. This relational analogy of Jesus the Good Shepherd calling his flock by name to follow him through the sheepfold gate resonates deeply. Listeners to this reading can contemplate all the ways a shepherd cares for his sheep, provides for all their needs, protects them, seeks them out if they stray, and guides their paths. Children easily see themselves as the sheep and intuit that Jesus' offer of love, care, and protection is for each of us.

This analogy communicates God's unceasing desire to be close to us. God entered into humanity and became one of us so that we might know and believe the possibility of true relationship with him. God knows each of us. God knows every part of us. God calls each of us by name. He leads us in right paths and stays by our side as protector and provider.

Good Shepherd Sunday offers a beautiful opportunity to place ourselves in this rich image and discover anew that we are called and beloved by Jesus, our Good Shepherd.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, May 1

St. Joseph the Worker

Today marks the second special date the Church has set aside to lift up and honor St. Joseph, the earthly father to Jesus of Nazareth. As a carpenter, Joseph serves as a model for the virtue of work and provision for his family. He did this quietly, without drawing attention away from his spouse, Mary, or his son, Jesus. His steadfast faithfulness led him eventually to be named the patron of the universal Church. St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us. Today's readings: Genesis 1:26–2:3 or Colossians 3:14–15, 17, 23–24; Psalm 90:2, 3–4, 12–13, 14 and 16; Matthew 13:54–58.

Tuesday, May 2

The Father and I are One

Today's Scripture passage locates Jesus in the temple at Jerusalem, once again surrounded by his fellow Jews imploring him to explain himself. We can sense Jesus' exasperation with their lack of perception despite his many efforts to show and tell them his true identity. He concludes boldly, "The Father and I are one" (John 10:30). Take this essential truth to prayer today. Can you empathize with his contemporaries and their struggle to comprehend? Today's readings: Acts 11:19–26; Psalm 87:1b–3, 4–5, 6–7; John 10:22–30.

Wednesday, May 3

Feast of Sts. Philip and James

Jesus is the way, the truth, and the path to life. Our key link to God the Father, Jesus came to show the way to experience a relationship with the One who desires to be with us. Through following Jesus to the Father, we also become key links in the relationship chain. The apostles Philip and James were some of the first links in this unbroken chain of those who call themselves disciples of Jesus. Today's readings: 1 Corinthians 15:1–8; Psalm 19:2–3, 4–5; John 14:6–14.

Thursday, May 4

The Panoramic View

The pairing of today's first reading and Gospel offers the aerial view of the plan of salvation. Paul paints the broad strokes of God's covenant with the people of Israel leading to Jesus. Jesus echoes his divine role when he claims that his purpose is the fulfillment of Scripture (John 13:18). Step back and take in the panoramic view to contemplate God's plan and our role in it as disciples in this time and place. Today's readings: Acts 13:13–25; Psalm 89:2–3, 21–22, 25 and 27; John 13:16–20.

Friday, May 5

In My Father's House

Chapter 14 of John's Gospel is often chosen for proclamation at the Mass of Christian Burial. The words of consolation, encouragement in faith, and promise of a place of rest with God for all of eternity are just the words many need to hear when grief is fresh and there is wonder about the care of our souls after death consumes our hearts. Jesus' assurance to his beloved disciples speaks to us today. Light a candle in remembrance of departed loved ones. Sit in prayer with this passage from John's Gospel. Allow it to sink in and comfort you today. Today's readings: Acts 13:26–33; Psalm 2:6–7, 8–9, 10–11ab; John 14:1–6.

Saturday, May 6

Filled with Joy

Luke paints a picture of the disciples Paul and Barnabas as active evangelizers, "The disciples could not but be filled with joy and the Holy Spirit" (Acts 13:52). Pope Francis calls us to follow their example as missionary disciples. The most effective approach is exuding the contagious joy of our life in God. Practice joy today. Attend to how you radiate joy in your words, actions, and gestures. Today's readings: Acts 13:44–52; Psalm 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; John 14:7–14.

LOVE AND PRAYERS FOR THE PARISH

Two of our parishioners, Marie Ducasse and Norma Landry, who are not able to attend Mass asked our staff to share their hello to friends at Mass and their love, prayers, and best wishes for all. They were happy to give permission last week to have their photo taken and put in the bulletin to show that they are still alive and well.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Jesús mío, creo que estás realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento, te amo sobre toda las cosas, y te deseo en el interior de mi alma.

Ya que en este momento no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón; estando dentro de mí, yo te abrazo y me uno todo a Ti.

No permitas nunca que me separe de Ti. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION: ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me. Within your wounds hide me.
Separated from you, let me never be.
From the evil one, protect me.
At the hour of my death, call me.
And close to you bid me;
That with your Saints, I may be, praising you
For ever and ever. Amen.

*Alma de Cristo, santifícame.
Cuerpo de Cristo, sálvame.
Sangre de Cristo, embriágame.
Agua del costado de Cristo, lávame.
Pasión de Cristo, cóntórtame.
¡Oh, buen Jesús!, óyeme.
Dentro de tus llagas, escóndeme.
No permitas que me aparte de Ti.
Del maligno enemigo, defiéndeme
En la hora de mi muerte, llámame.
Y mándame ir a Ti. Para que con tus santos te alabe.
Por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.*

SEASLOBSERVER

PALLY PARLANCE ON LABORS OF LOVE

On Tuesday, April 25th Pete McAdam was seen at church with two close friends.

Over the years Pete has been part of many ministries at the parish including the choir; the 'Dream Team' which contributed in conceptualizing the Adoration Chapel; in being part of the Adoration Chapel team; in helping to install the base version of sound system in current use; the construct of several of the altar furnishings in the chapel and church among other things.

Did you know that when the permanent altar with the three niches was built by Norma Landry's sons, Daniel and Joseph, who were contractors and builders by trade, the cross that is placed in the center did not fit? It took Pete and office manager, Javier Soto, a entire Saturday to shorten the stand that the cross fits into so that the cross would fit.

Pete is a great example of all SEAS parishioners: We each have our own gifts to share and have given our time and labors of love to Christ through our parish community.

Fr. Joey was once asked what he sees when he looks around him, at the time he was at the rectory. He answered that he sees the people, the parishioners.

Look around. Look inside. Who do you 'see' when you look around the church? Does it make you think of the works and love that you or others have given? Does the charity offered lead you to Christ?

ADULT CONFIRMATIONS

Bishop Danny will be at Mission San Luis Obispo this Saturday, April 29th to preside at the Confirmation Mass for those 70+ adults being Confirmed, one of whom is our parishioner, Getz zemany Ruiz Nunez. Let us keep her in our prayers.

Adult Confirmations are offered a few times a year.

To begin the process for adult Confirmation, schedule a meeting with Fr. Joey. Confirmation is one of the three Sacraments of Initiation within the Catholic Church giving the outpouring of grace received at Baptism so we can better share the mission of Christ.

WORDLY WISE

"With permission' is sometimes added to bulletin thanks in regard to outdoor yardwork," one parishioner noted recently, "Why is that?" they asked.

In short it means volunteers are serving with the permission of parish staff. It helps keep our volunteers safe and ensures the general care and maintenance of the church property.

We are very fortunate to have a team of parishioners who volunteer and work together with office manager, Javier Soto Osorio, to help maintain, plant and beautify the premises outside.

When volunteers come to Javier, he is able to share where help is most needed. He is keenly aware of the limitations put on parishioners in regard to safety and insurance regulations. He keeps track of the scheduled mowing, spraying of vinegar for weed abatement, and new plantings and plant types. Javier works closely with Fr. Joey who oversees everything.

We also have a few groups of volunteer parishioners who clean the chapel and church interiors under Javier's supervision.

The 'with permission' then makes sense that the volunteers serving our parish are working under the direction of Fr. Joey and our office manager as part of the general upkeep and maintenance of our parish with a streamlined vision especially in regard to the groundskeeping and cleaning. They are not doing their own thing, but working together with the office staff for the benefit of the parish and community.

WHAT'S YOUR STORY

A couple weeks ago at hospitality Bill Griffiths mentioned that people at our parish are really interesting, but we don't really know each other. What an intriguing observation.

At the parish we have had parishioners who worked in diamond mines, others who were teachers, some are avid hikers or ultra marathon runners, others who are entrepreneurs and started their own businesses, some have worked for Diablo Nuclear Power Plant, others working with rockets at Vandenberg, and the list goes on.

Next time you are at Mass, look at the person who always sits next to you or your family. Be challenged to get to know them. You may even find a good friend.
