Flowers may be brought to the image of our Lady during the offertory procession behind the bread and wine. Parents should accompany children to help them. Thank you.

THANK YOU TO OUR VISITING PRIESTS

WELCOME BACK FR. JOEY!

PRAYER OF POPE FRANCIS TO MARY, HEALTH OF THE SICK

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of all, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Way

Eternal God,
you sent your Son to become one of us and teach us how to be in relationship with you.

Thank you for showing us the way to you through Jesus.

He is the great gift of our lives.

Help us remain close to one another in Christian friendship.

Strengthen the bonds of love in our family.

Unite us as one in our faith community and assist us as we seek to show others the way, the truth, and the life.

Through Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

The Way, The Truth, The Life

Today's readings: Acts 6:1-7; Psalm 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19; 1 Peter 2:4-9; John 14:1-12. When we read the words of Jesus with two thousand years of salvation history in our rearview mirror, it all seems clear. Jesus repeatedly tells the disciples exactly who he is, who sent him, and where he is going. He promises his disciples, whom he loved with human and divine power, that they will remain close for all eternity. Human death will not destroy the bonds of love and relationship.

This promise, first spoken to the disciples shortly after Jesus washed their feet, extends to believers across the generations as well. He offers a compass so that we can always stay close. "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). There it is: we remain close to God by remaining close to Jesus. Last Sunday, Jesus told us that he is the gate. Today he tells us he is the "way" and the "truth" and the "life." Follow his way. Believe his truth. And you will have life eternal.

At that moment of revelation, the disciples responded with questions and confusion. But with the advantage of knowing the full story, we can proceed with confidence, faith, and trust. In the opening prayer for Mass today, we ask God to "constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us" that we baptized Christians may "bear much fruit" in our lives and eventually "come to the joys of life eternal." Persevere in following the footsteps of Jesus, confident they lead to eternal joy with him.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, May 8

God First

Our message for today is captured in the response to Psalm 115, “Not to us, LORD, not to us / but to your name give the glory” (115:1). Across all time people fall into the trap of worshipping false gods and the temptation has only grown with the emergence of social media and celebrity. The first commandment that God gave so long ago spells it out clearly. The first disciples and all those who follow are called to point the way to the Triune God. Attend to how you spend your time today and where you place your energy: Who or what do you place first in your life? If not God, is it time for realignment? Today’s readings: Acts 14:5–18; Psalm 115:1–2, 3–4, 15–16; John 14:21–26.

Tuesday, May 9

Be Persistent

Paul and Barnabas demonstrate unstoppable persistence in their single-focused mission to bring the good news to all who will listen. They tenaciously give witness to all the ways God has accompanied and supported them through trials and tests. Our primary call as baptized Christians is to live in such a way that we are constantly giving glory to God. Small gestures count as much as large gestures. How do you give glory to God in the small details of your day? Today’s readings: Acts 14:19–28; Psalm 145:10–11, 12–13ab 21; John 14:27–31a.

Wednesday, May 10

Remain

God deeply desires to be close to us. Jesus reveals this desire when he proclaims the he is the vine and we are the branches. Read John 15:1–8 carefully and count how many times Jesus uses the word remain. Jesus ardently implores his disciples and all of us to remain close to him. We can see the closeness of God in the new spring growth of branches, leaves, and flower buds. Jesus uses the familiar image of the vine and the branches to help us visually comprehend the closeness he desires. He is the vine, we are the branches. Look for the signs of God in creation. Can you see them? Today’s readings: Acts 15:1–6; Psalm 122:1–2, 3–4ab, 4cd–5; John 15:1–8.

Thursday, May 11

Love and Joy

Jesus’ words to his disciples read like a Christmas card. He encourages them to know and feel the love of God that he knows with his Father. Place yourself in the room with the disciples. Jesus wishes this knowledge of love for each of us. Receive it as a gift and allow it to unwrap great joy in your heart. Follow his example and tell someone you love them today. Today’s readings: Acts 15:7–21; Psalm 96:1–2a, 2b–3, 10; John 15:9–11.

Friday, May 12

Love One Another

Jesus’ words move from invitational to commanding. In this next passage from John’s Gospel he tells the disciples straight out, “This is my commandment: love one another” (John 15:12). Parents say it to their children. Marriage counselors say it to husbands and wives. Pastors say it to parishioners. We are called to stick together as a family with love as the binding agent. Tack the commandment on a note card where you will see it over and over again. Today’s readings: Acts 15:22–31; Psalm 57:8–9, 10 and 12; John 15:12–17.

Saturday, May 13

Called and Chosen

When walking as a disciple feels hard, remember the assurances Jesus offered to his followers in John 15:19, “I have chosen you.” God calls and chooses us to be joyful and courageous witnesses in the communities where we are planted. We are not alone; God walks with us. Look for an opportunity to share your faith with someone new today. Today’s readings: Acts 16:1–10; Psalm 100:1b–2, 3, 5; John 15:18–21.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Jesús mío, creo que estás realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento, te amo sobre toda las cosas, y te deseo en el interior de mi alma.

Ya que en este momento no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón; estando dentro de mí, yo te abrazo y me uno todo a Ti.

No permitas nunca que me separe de Ti. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION: ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me. Within your wounds hide me.
Separated from you, let me never be.
From the evil one, protect me.
At the hour of my death, call me.
And close to you bid me;
That with your Saints, I may be, praising you
For ever and ever. Amen.

*Alma de Cristo, santifícame.
Cuerpo de Cristo, sálvame.
Sangre de Cristo, embriágame.
Agua del costado de Cristo, lávame.
Pasión de Cristo, cóntórtame.
¡Oh, buen Jesús!, óyeme.
Dentro de tus llagas, escóndeme.
No permitas que me aparte de Ti.
Del maligno enemigo, defiéndeme
En la hora de mi muerte, llámame.
Y mándame ir a Ti. Para que con tus santos te alabe.
Por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.*

SEASLOBSERVER

People's Kitchen started early last week with its prep work for split pea soup, ham & cheese sliders, and salad. We were able to catch-up with Sharon Kroll and her brother Bill Tran for a special interview.

Staff: What is your favorite recipe for People's Kitchen?

Sharon: The simplest one—every other month Melodianne makes chicken & Jonniepat a vegetarian dish and then Sharon & others do sides. Other easy People's Kitchen dishes are sliders—buttery ham & cheese are very popular. We avoid spaghetti and noodles because they (People's Kitchen attendees) get so much pasta on the other days. In winter it's nice to augment with hot soup. It is time consuming, but cost effective.

Staff: Is People's

Kitchen your first experience with putting together large meals this month?

Sharon: I have a large extended family. I used to help my mom who asked for a shed at her church and made sack lunches for those who needed food. People's Kitchen is not even a shadow of what my mom did. She helped at St Boniface church in Southern California.

Staff: How did you get involved with People's Kitchen (PK) here?

Sharon: Fr Mark brought me in. He made people do things they didn't want to do. I remember walking into the kitchen and June gave me checkbook over twenty years ago.

Staff: Has People's Kitchen always been in San Luis Obispo, or has the parish served meals here in Los Osos?

Sharon: Always to SLO. It started every other month, but the need became so great. The numbers are way up now again unfortunately. All different denominations, even family, businesses all help with food and serving. When it started People's Kitchen was at a park, out of people cars too, maybe at Elk's parking lot. Then the Prado center next to sewer was built. It has always been called People's Kitchen even at start. Just like family, don't want to waste, get things on sale

Staff: Who currently helps with PK besides Melodianne and Jonniepat?

Sharon: Diane, Sylvia, Phil, Emily: Emily is willing to do anything; and there's Margaret; and Mary: Mary makes an amazing salad with lots of color and texture. My brother, Bill, has also help last few years, behind the scenes stuff, but really helping.

Staff: Do you have other thoughts to share?

Bill: It's a fun thing to do, nice people there

Sharon: Can be challenging though.

Bill: Sometimes one or two characters are there.

Sharon: There are people who volunteer as hosts, a go between for people and volunteers, they give silver ware, and are a go between if there is chaos, or to ask guests to put masks on, or keeping to rules. PK never closed, even during COVID. PK is expanding to add breakfast. Regarding troublemakers, they might not be allowed to come in, but they are still fed in an outdoor area.

Bill: There are few families. I'm surprised because you see them out with families. Kids eat first, then those with handicap. Women get in line with the rest.

Sharon: No feeding dogs allowed. Folks have to eat right at PK, no taking food out. To-go meals for the sick are given outside. We have to be careful of foil because they not allowed to save food to eat later. Mayo and things like that go bad, trash is an issue. The cool thing is that at end of the meal the person in charge announces that our parish provided the meal. The new Prado center serves the same as the one next to sewer used to. The nicest people help: Dentists, chiropractic, barbers still volunteers their services.

Staff: Thank you, Sharon and Bill for sharing about People's Kitchen.
