PRAYER OF POPE FRANCIS TO MARY, HEALTH OF THE SICK

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.

At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of all, know what we need.

We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us:

He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

I am writing to you today on an important topic: the sexual abuse of minors. In 2019, the California legislature reopened the statute of limitations for childhood sexual abuse for a three-year period. The three-year period began on January 1, 2020 and ran through December 31, 2022. In that period of time, the Diocese of Monterey received approximately 100 lawsuits alleging childhood sexual abuse which occurred between the 1950s and 2002. As mentioned below, we have made significant changes to ensure the safety of children while under our care.

As you may have heard in the media, other California dioceses have either filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection or are considering it. In the Diocese of Monterey, we have been discussing how best to resolve these cases and how to be fair to all of the victims. One of the options that we have been considering is filing a Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition. This would allow all victims to be compensated from the limited funds that the Diocese has and will be allocated in an equitable manner.

I have consulted with the priests of the diocese, the Presbyteral Council, and my advisors and we are strongly considering this option. Our attorneys have tried other methods of resolution, but, unfortunately, have not been successful in reaching a resolution. While we have not made any final decision on filing for bankruptcy, it is highly likely in light of the number of lawsuits we are facing.

The issue of the sexual abuse of minors has been one that deeply saddens and disturbs all of us. It is an on-going human problem that has touched many families and all kinds of public and private organizations including, most sadly, the Catholic Church. These actions are never acceptable. Because of this, our prayers always support the victim-survivors, and we are committed to helping those touched by childhood sexual abuse by those working for the Church in Monterey.

Sexual abuse of children is intolerable, and we have worked hard in the Diocese of Monterey to restore trust in our processes and procedures so that children are safe. In 2002, the Bishops of the United States promulgated the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, we are committed to a zero-tolerance policy and on-going, required Safe Environment training for all, clergy, and laity, who participate in ministry. These decisive steps have made a positive difference. Above all, the Church firmly believes we must hold accountable those who perpetrate such violations.

Again, I ask for your prayers for all victim-survivors. I also ask your prayers for our Diocese, parish communities, and all those who faithfully, with integrity and generosity, assist me in ministering to the People of God.

Peace of the Risen Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel E. Garcia
Bishop of Monterey

Abril 18, 2024

Estimados hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Les escribo hoy sobre un tema importante: el abuso sexual de menores. En el 2019, la legislatura de California reabrió por un período de tres años el plazo del estatuto de limitaciones para casos de abuso sexual infantil. El período de tres años comenzó el 1 de enero del 2020 y se extendió hasta el 31 de diciembre del 2022. En ese período, la Diócesis de Monterey recibió aproximadamente 100 demandas que alegaban abuso sexual infantil ocurrido entre los años 1950 y 2002. Como se menciona a continuación, hemos realizado cambios significativos para garantizar la seguridad de los niños mientras están bajo nuestro cuidado.

Como habrán escuchado en los medios de comunicación, otras diócesis de California han decidido entrar al Capítulo 11 de la Ley de Quiebras para protección por bancarrota, o lo están considerando. En la Diócesis de Monterey, hemos estado discutiendo cuál es la mejor manera de resolver estos casos y cómo ser justos con todas las víctimas. Una de las opciones que hemos estado considerando es presentar una petición de bancarrota del mencionado Capítulo 11. Esto permitiría que todas las víctimas sean compensadas con los fondos limitados que tiene la Diócesis, y los cuales se asignarán de manera equitativa.

He consultado con los sacerdotes de la diócesis, con el Consejo Presbiteral, y con mis asesores. Estamos considerando seriamente esta opción. Nuestros abogados han intentado otros métodos de resolución, pero, desafortunadamente, no lo han logrado. Si bien no hemos tomado ninguna decisión final sobre declararnos en quiebra, es muy probable que lo hagamos considerando la cantidad de demandas que enfrentamos.

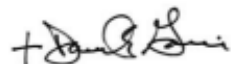

El tema del abuso sexual de menores ha sido uno que nos entristece y perturba profundamente a todos. Es un problema humano continuo que ha afectado a muchas familias y todo tipo de organizaciones públicas y privadas, incluida, muy tristemente, la Iglesia Católica. Estas acciones nunca son aceptables. Por esta razón, nuestras oraciones siempre apoyan a las víctimas-sobrevivientes, y estamos comprometidos a ayudar a aquellos afectados por el abuso sexual infantil cometido por quienes trabajan para la Iglesia en Monterey.

El abuso sexual de niños es intolerable y hemos trabajado arduamente en la Diócesis de Monterey para restaurar la confianza en nuestros procesos y procedimientos para que los niños estén seguros. En el 2002, los Obispos de los Estados Unidos promulgaron la Carta Nacional para la Protección de la Infancia y la Juventud, con la cual estamos comprometidos con una política de tolerancia cero y con una capacitación continua y requerida sobre Ambiente Seguro para todos, clérigos y laicos, que participan en ministerio. Estos pasos decisivos han hecho una diferencia positiva. Por encima de todo, la Iglesia cree firmemente que debemos responsabilizar a quienes perpetran tales violaciones.

Nuevamente les pido oraciones por todas las víctimas-sobrevivientes. También pido sus oraciones por nuestra Diócesis, las comunidades parroquiales y todos aquellos que fielmente, con integridad y generosidad, me ayudan en el ministerio al Pueblo de Dios.

En la Paz de Cristo Resucitado,

Reverendísimo Daniel E. García
Obispo de Monterey

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Our Shepherd

God the Father,
you are our shepherd,
who offer us green pastures,
and life-giving water.
Through love and kindness,
you lead your flock
to a restful place.
With your tender touch,
you cast away our fears.
There is nothing we want
but to remain by your side.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, April 21, 2024
The Good Shepherd

Today's readings: Acts 4:8–12; Psalm 118:1, 8–9, 21–23, 26, 28, 29; 1 John 3:1–2; John 10:11–18. When you see the Good Shepherd depicted in art, do you see yourself as the lamb? Do you see yourself as one to be protected, guided, and comforted? Or do you think the lamb reflects only a child? Imagining yourself as the lamb will provide insight into who God is for you. “I am the Good Shepherd, and I know mine, and mine know me,” Jesus says. This portrayal reveals the intimacy of our relationship with God. God knows us and has given us the capacity to know him.

The shepherd is willing to lay down his life for his sheep. The Good Shepherd has already done this for us, dying on the cross so that we may have eternal life. A hired hand, however, does not have this connection to the sheep; he would not sacrifice his life for the flock. This man “sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away.”

Our Shepherd is with us—in our loneliness and sorrow as well as in our joy. Spend a few minutes in quiet, imagining yourself with the Good Shepherd in a green pasture. Let him hear not only your voice but your deepest desires. Seek to expand your quiet prayer time this week so that you might hear the Good Shepherd’s voice. Remember your relationship with the Good Shepherd grows as you make space for him in your life.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, April 22

In Silence

“The sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.” The Gospel of John portrays the Lord as intimately connected to his followers. They know his voice, and he has come so that “they might have life and have it more abundantly.” Only by pausing our busy lives can we hear God’s voice. Consider where you might have even a few minutes in a day to listen to God. Today’s readings: Acts 11:1–18; Psalm 42:2–3; 43:3, 4; John 10:1–10.

Tuesday, April 23

Listen

In today’s Gospel, we hear that people continue to badger Jesus to prove he is indeed the Son of God. “How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly,” they say. These people are among those who do not recognize the shepherd’s voice. Once the sheep are in the flock, Jesus says, “No one can take them [sheep] out of the Father’s hands. The Father and I are one.” In coming chapters of the Gospel of John, we will hear Jesus yearn for that same unity with humankind. Today’s readings: Acts 11:19–26; Psalm 87:1b–3, 4–5, 6–7; John 10:22–30.

Wednesday, April 24

Obedying the Spirit

Today’s account from Acts shows Barnabas and Saul sailing to Cyprus to spread the Good News. They wasted no time in responding to the Holy Spirit, who told the community, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.” How does your community help people discern their gifts and their mission in the Church? Is there anyone you can meet with in your parish to help you discern your calling to serve the Church and the world? Today’s readings: Acts 12:24–13:5a; Psalm 67:2–3, 5, 6, 8; John 12:44–50.

Thursday, April 25

Feast of St. Mark

On the Feast of St. Mark, Evangelist, we hear in the Gospel, “Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature.” St. Mark is believed to be the disciple referred to in Acts as “John who is called Mark” (12:25). He was the son of Mary of Jerusalem, who opened her home to the disciples. It is believed that he met Peter, Paul, and other disciples in his mother’s home and then joined them in evangelizing. Today’s readings: 1 Peter 5:5b–14; Psalm 89:2–3, 6–7, 16–17; Mark 16:15–20.

Friday, April 26

Always Loving

With Thomas voicing confusion, Jesus lovingly replies, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” Thomas had followed Jesus for years and still questioned where the Lord was leading the disciples. Believers live with questions. Whether your faith is new or lifelong, you may at times be unsure of the spiritual path you are to follow. Jesus offers assurance that he is not only the way but the truth and the life. Today’s readings: Acts 13:26–33; Psalm 2:6–7, 8–9, 10–11ab; John 14:1–6.

Saturday, April 27

In Silence

“Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us,” Philip tells Jesus. There is a Philip in all of us, looking for reassurance of the presence of God in our lives. Sometimes we ask God for a sign to calm our fears. Jesus directs Philip and us to look not only to his words but his works. Where do you see the work of God in your community? Is there someone who needs reassurance that God is present during struggles? Today’s readings: Acts 13:44–52; Psalm 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; John 14:7–14.

CUARTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Pastor nuestro

Dios,
Padre y Pastor nuestro,
nos llevas a prados verdes
y al agua dadora de vida.
Con amor y bondad
guías a tu rebaño
a un lugar de reposo.
Con tu tacto tierno
nos despojaste del miedo.
Nada hay que deseemos más que seguir a tu lado.
Por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

Domingo, 21 de abril de 2024
El Buen Pastor

Lecturas del día: Hechos 4: 8-12; Salmo 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29; 1 Juan 3:1-2; Juan 10:11-18. Al ver un cuadro del Buen Pastor, ¿se ve usted como oveja? ¿Se considera usted alguien al que hay que proteger, guiar y confortar? ¿O considera que la oveja refleja a solamente a los niños? Pensar que uno es la oveja, nos da la idea de que Dios está con uno. “Yo soy el buen pastor: conozco a mis ovejas y ellas me conocen a mí”, dice Jesús. Este pasaje nos revela lo íntimo de la relación entre Dios y nosotros. Dios sabe quiénes somos; nos ha dado la capacidad de conocerlo.

El pastor está dispuesto a dar la vida por el rebaño. El Buen Pastor ya lo ha hecho por nosotros, ha muerto en la cruz para darnos vida eterna. A un asalariado, sin embargo, le falta tal conexión con las ovejas; él no sacrificaría la vida por ellas. Este hombre “cuando ve venir al lobo, escapa abandonando las ovejas”. Nuestro Pastor está con nosotros: en nuestra desolación y lamento, en nuestra dicha. Dedique algunos minutos a imaginarse que está con el Buen Pastor un pastizal verde. Deje que él le oiga la voz y los deseos más íntimos. Intente dedicar más tiempo a la oración esta semana para así oír la voz del Buen Pastor. Recuerde que la relación entre usted y el Buen Pastor crece a medida que usted le hace espacio en su vida.

ESTA SEMANA EN CASA

Lunes, 22 de abril

En silencio

“Ellas [las ovejas] le siguen; porque reconocen su voz”. El Evangelio según san Juan muestra que hay una conexión íntima entre el Señor y sus seguidores. Ellos conocen su voz, y él ha venido “para que tengan vida, y la tengan en abundancia”. Únicamente al hacer una pausa en nuestro ajetreado día a día es cuando oímos la voz de Dios. Pregúntese dónde es que pudiera escuchar a Dios, aunque sea unos cuantos minutos. Lecturas del día: Hechos 11:1–18; Salmo 42:2–3; 43:3, 4; Juan 10:1–10.

Martes, 23 de abril

Escuchar

El evangelio de hoy nos cuenta que algunos insisten en que Jesús pruebe que en verdad es el Hijo de Dios. “¿Hasta cuándo nos tendrás en suspenso? Si eres el Mesías, dílo claramente”, le dicen. Se trata de gente que son de los que no reconocen la voz del pastor. Una vez las ovejas dentro del redil, Jesús dice, “Nadie puede arrancar nada de las manos de mi Padre. El Padre y yo somos uno”. En los siguientes capítulos del relato joánico, oiremos a Jesús anhelar la misma unidad con la humanidad. Lecturas del día: Hechos 11:19–26; Salmo 87:1b–3, 4–5, 6–7; Juan 10:22–30.

Miércoles, 24 de abril

Obedecer al Espíritu

En el pasaje de hoy de Hechos, Bernabé y Saulo navegan hacia Chipre para difundir la Buena Nueva. Sin cortapisas responden al Espíritu Santo que le dijo a la comunidad, “Sepárenme a Bernabé y a Saulo para la tarea a la que los tengo destinados”. ¿De qué forma su comunidad ayuda a que la gente discerna el talento propio y la misión que tiene dentro de la Iglesia? ¿Hay alguien con quien usted pueda reunirse en su parroquia para que le ayude a discernir el llamado a servir a la Iglesia y al mundo? Lecturas del día: Hechos 12:24–13:5a; Salmo 67:2–3, 5, 6, 8; Juan 12:44–50.

Jueves, 25 de abril

Fiesta de san Marcos

El día de la fiesta de san Marcos evangelista, el evangelio nos dice, “Vayan por todo el mundo proclamando la Buena Noticia a toda la humanidad”. Se cree que san Marcos es el discípulo al que Hechos se refiere como “Juan, de sobrenombre Marcos”. Era hijo de María de Jerusalén, la que le abrió su casa a los discípulos. Se cree que él conoció a Pedro, a Pablo y a otros discípulos en casa de su madre y que luego se les unió en la evangelización. Lecturas del día: 1 Pedro 5:5b–14; Salmo 89:2–3, 6–7, 16–17; Marcos 16:15–20.

Viernes, 26 de abril

Siempre amoroso

Ante la confusión de Tomás, Jesús responde con cariño, “Yo soy el camino, la verdad y la vida: nadie va al Padre si no es por mí”. Durante años Tomás había seguido a Jesús; no obstante, se preguntaba a dónde el Señor estaba llevando a los discípulos. Los creyentes viven con preguntas. Ya sea que la fe de uno sea reciente o de toda la vida, a veces uno duda del camino de la fe que estamos a punto de seguir. Jesús nos asegura que él no solamente es el único camino; también es la verdad y la vida. Lecturas del día: Hechos 13:26–33; Salmo 2:6–7, 8–9, 10–11ab; Juan 14:1–6.

Sábado, 27 de abril

En silencio

“Señor, enséñanos al Padre y nos basta”, pide Felipe a Jesús. Todos llevamos a un Felipe dentro, un Felipe que busca el consuelo de la presencia de Dios en nuestras vidas. En ocasiones pedimos que Dios nos dé una señal para apaciguar el temor. Jesús instruyó a Felipe a poner atención tanto a las palabras como a las obras de aquél. En la comunidad de usted, ¿dónde ha visto la obra de Dios? ¿Hay alguien al que le haga falta el consuelo de que Dios está presente en las horas difíciles? Lecturas del día: Hechos 13:44–52; Salmo 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; Juan 14:7–14.

WE NEED PLEDGES OF TO TARPS OFF! FOR AT LEAST 3 YEARS.

Thank you to everyone who has given a 1 time donation. It is greatly appreciated!

As a reminder to all, the below listing is a gross recording of donations and fundraiser earnings. Again, these are gross totals. Fundraising events have not had overhead expenses not yet taken out.

Thank you for your pledge!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Q: Did the amount needed for the roof change from 2023 to 2024?

A: Yes. With the 2023 rise in prices for building materials and labor, the roofing companies said this is an increased cost to us. 'Surprises' due to wood rot and other issues were NOT factored into bids; we are told to prepare.

Q: If the parish collects more than is needed to repay the loan, where will that money go?

A: Any money collected beyond the $200,000 to repay the loan will be placed into our parish savings account for the months when annually Sunday collections, especially the summer months and holiday breaks when parishioners travel, are lean and we barely receive enough funding, and sometimes don't, for parish operations.

Q: If we collect our goal of $200, 000 before year's end, will we discontinue the Tarps Off Campaign?

A: No. The money collected this year is not assessed so we will continue the Tarps Off Capital Campaign. It is recommended that the parish has at least $50,000 in savings for lean months and unexpected expenses.

Q: Could you share with us the funds that we collected last year?

A: The following were published in our bulletin, website and announced at Masses last year:

$ 28, 611 Collected as of March 20, 2023
 $ 19, 082 Wall Cross Fundraiser
 $ 20, 690 Insurance Payment (for walls)

Q: What happened to that money collected?

A: That money is still set aside for the roof replacement. The Diocese requires parishes to have half the loan amount needed before giving a parish a loan. The Diocese waived the full amount needed to acquire the loan as we have $68, 383 (see above) and need is great.

Q: If we add last year's roof fund ($68, 383 ) to the current TARPS OFF gross donations (expenses not taken out) as of 15 April 2024 ($78, 057) How much do we have?

A: $ 146, 440. 00 YAY!!!

Q: With that amount, can we start the work at least for the slope, flat roofs, roof top parapets, and roof drains?

A: No, because that part of the construction amounts to almost $150, 000. 00

Q: It seems like we are doing well with the donations & creative fundraisers. We may not need a loan. What do you think?

A: It depends. We still have the TARPS OFF creative fundraisers lined up:

- May 4—Legacy Formal Dinner and Ballroom Dance
- May 19—Pentecost Sunday Kermés
- May 19-June 23—Cross on the Wall Fundraiser
- June 22— "Painting Party"
- August 30—Hausser's Concert

We will see after these. We focus on these and make the most of this 2024 year because the parish keeps the full TARPS OFF amount for 2024.

HOW MUCH DOES PARISH NEED IN DONATIONS WEEKLY?

A couple parishioners have asked how much money we need for parish operations with the recent fluctuation due to spring break and the TARPS OFF! Capital Campaign going on.

According to our bookkeeper our parish needs an estimated average of $ 3,500 per week or $1,000 more per week for Parish Operations and Sunday Plate Collection combined to meet payroll, utilities, and other expenses.

With the TARPS OFF! Capital Campaign the amount for our Sunday Collections has dipped as some parishioners have shifted their donations toward the roof.

BULLETIN CORRECTIONS

Last week it was erroneously reported that St. Joseph's Fund was $100. The actual donation for the St. Joseph's Fund was $200. The donation total for 6/7 April Collections was $3, 661.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations 2024

The harvest is great, but the laborers are few; PRAY therefore earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." (Mt. (37-38)

This coming April 21, 2024, the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Everyone is invited to make a special effort to pray and ask the Lord for vocations to the priesthood and religious life to pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead. As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations and teaching young people how to discern God's call, is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life. This call to pray for vocations may be done by praying a rosary, by eucharistic adoration, or by doing some spiritual sacrifices with an intention that more and more young men and women in our diocese respond to God's call.

Pope Saint John Paul II said, "Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit."

Let our Easter Joy led us to hope and confidence that the Lord of the harvest will hear our prayers and raise up among us new laborers in His vineyard.

Let us pray and cultivate the culture of vocation!

Send O Lord, Holy Apostles into Your church!

Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones 2024

La mies es mucha, pero los obreros pocos; rogad, por tanto, al Señor de la mies que envíe obreros a su mies.”. (Mt 9: 37-38)

Este próximo 21 de abril del 2024, la Iglesia en todo el mundo ora por las vocaciones. Todos están invitados a hacer un esfuerzo especial para orar y pedir al Señor vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa para orar por los sacerdotes que se han ministrado a lo largo de su vida, tanto vivos como muertos. ¡Como católicos, creemos firmemente que Dios tiene un plan para nuestras vidas! A algunos los llama al matrimonio, a otros al sacerdocio y a otros a la vida religiosa o a vivir como solteros generosos. Vivir plenamente nuestra propia vocación y enseñar a los jóvenes a discernir la llamada de Dios es un deber serio, pero también gozoso. Durante esta semana, anime a los jóvenes en su vida (hijos, nietos, estudiantes y amigos) a estar abiertos si Dios los llama al sacerdocio o a la vida religiosa. Este llamado a orar por las vocaciones puede hacerse mediante el rezo del rosario, la adoración eucarística o la realización de algunos sacrificios espirituales con la intención de que cada vez más jóvenes de nuestra diócesis respondan al llamado de Dios.

El Papa San Juan Pablo II dijo: “Jesús tiene una tarea específica en la vida para todos y cada uno de nosotros. ¡Cada uno de nosotros es elegido cuidadosamente, llamado por nuestro nombre por Jesús! ¡No hay nadie entre nosotros que no tenga una vocación divina! Algunos son llamados audiblemente por Dios, pero el tipo de llamado habitual es interno, a través de la obra interna del Espíritu”.

Que nuestra alegría pascual nos lleve a la esperanza y la confianza de que el Señor de la cosecha escuchará nuestras oraciones y levantará entre nosotros nuevos trabajadores en su viña.

¡Oremos y cultivemos la cultura de la vocación!

¡Envía, oh Señor, santos apóstoles a tu iglesia!

Lord Jesus Christ,
you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb.
Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.
Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.
Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.
Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me. Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world.
Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life.
You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

Señor Jesucristo,
nos das tu carne y tu sangre para la vida del mundo, y deseas que todos los hombres vengan a la Cena del Sacrificio del Cordero. Renueva en tu Iglesia la verdad, la belleza y la bondad contenidas en la Santísima Eucaristía.

Jesús que vives en la Eucaristía, ven y vive en mí.
Jesús, que sanas en la Eucaristía, ven y sáname.
Jesús, que te sacrificas en la Eucaristía, ven y sufre en mí. Jesús, resucitado en la Eucaristía, ven y resucita a una nueva vida en mí.
Jesús, amando en la Eucaristía, ven y ama en mí.

Señor Jesucristo, por el misterio pascual de tu muerte y resurrección, hecho presente en cada Santa Misa, derrama tu amor sanador sobre tu Iglesia y sobre nuestro mundo. Concédenos que, mientras te elevamos durante este tiempo de Avivamiento Eucarístico, tu Espíritu Santo atraiga a todas las personas a unirse a nosotros en este Banquete de la Vida. Tú vives y reinas con el Padre y el Espíritu Santo, Dios por los siglos de los siglos.

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, Madre de la Eucaristía, ruega por nosotros.

Stanley Moss wrote a poem, The Good Shepherd. In it, Moss reminds us of the care and responsibility that a good shepherd has. Then he mentions a point that some will not think about. Moss writes, "I knew there was only a thin line between the good shepherd and the butcher. How many lambs had put their heads between the shepherd's knees, closed their eyes..." The sheep place their absolute trust into the shepherd's hands. They know that the Good Shepherd will lead them to the pastures of Heaven.

We trust Christ Jesus, Our Good Shepherd, who gave his life for the salvation of all humankind and who asks us to join him in his mission here on earth. To lead us in this path Jesus chose his disciples and gave us his Apostles to teach and guide the disciples and all of us. It is their successors who continue to guide us in being partakers in Christ's mission; their successors are our Pope, our bishops, our priests, and our deacons.

The call to be a shepherd of the people is a supernatural gift that comes from God. Often the process of formation in becoming a priest (all bishops and the Pope start as a priest, so we are simplifying this grouping to 'priest'), or deacon may be long, and it starts with a difficult first step: developing a prayer life. Praying on a regular basis every day nurtures a steady and consistent prayer life. That prayer life becomes the lifeline that priests and deacons have with God. In fact, priests and deacons are asked to make a promise to the Bishop to pray the Liturgy of the Hours daily in the morning and evening. This prayer is open to all people through, for example, apps on the cell phone, websites, and in books. The Liturgy of the Hours, with the Mass, constitute the public prayer of the Church.

Those discerning whether they are being called to the priesthood or diaconate should also seek out a spiritual director. A spiritual director helps people to seek out and develop a deeper relationship with God and to discern where the Holy Spirit is guiding them. A spiritual director does not tell individuals what to do but helps them recognize God's voice and promptings. Anyone may seek out a spiritual director for help with deepening of faith life. Typically, dioceses have a listing of spiritual directors for those who inquire about them. Spiritual directors go through special training, education, and a certification process. That said, God is the true director of our souls. It makes sense then that those called especially to the priesthood and diaconate will have spiritual directors.

The diocesan Vocations Director can help those interested in exploring their call to the ordained life find a spiritual director. The Vocations Director, usually a priest, is the ambassador between the man being called and the diocese. When approaching the Vocations Director, one does not make a promise, they are merely exploring a potential direction placed in their life. The Vocations Director may have the person discerning a vocation or calling explore different areas of their life to help them hear God's call better. They will also help prepare those discerning through the application process.

After applying and interviews with the Bishop, then a seminary is chosen where the potential priest will study. Often deacons will have a program through their diocese but would not need a seminary.

In addition to school and prayer a seminarian is given pastoral work. Sometimes this can be at a parish with helping with a RCIA program. Other times it may be at a hospital or care home. Sometimes it may be in prison ministries. There are also other ministries that may be given to the person discerning a vocation to the priesthood. This helps to develop skills in pastoral leadership. In some diocese a pastoral year is recommended in which the seminarian in their 3rd year of study works at a parish to live and work along side the pastor to really aid in the priestly formation.

Knowing this is their true calling at the end of the third year, the seminarian prepares for their ordination to the transitional diaconate. As a deacon the man will proclaim the Gospel, preach, baptize, bury the dead, witness at weddings, and much more. The final year before ordination to the priesthood is filled with study and preparation. Then ordained priest, they will be assigned to a parish where they will also celebrate Mass and hear our Confessions.

Pray for our priests and deacons. They are our shepherds per God's calling. It is through love of Him that they give up their lives for us to serve the way Christ did. They are sons, brothers, cousins, uncles. 'cuz we love, we give.

“The Eucharist is ‘the source and summit of the Christian life.’ ‘The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are orientated toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch.’”

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Jesús mío, creo que estás realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento, te amo sobre toda las cosas, y te deseo en el interior de mi alma.

Ya que en este momento no puedo recibirte sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón; estando dentro de mí, yo te abrazo y me uno todo a Ti.

No permitas nunca que me separe de Ti. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION: ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me. Within your wounds hide me.
Separated from you, let me never be.
From the evil one, protect me.
At the hour of my death, call me.
And close to you bid me;
That with your Saints, I may be, praising you
For ever and ever. Amen.

Alma de Cristo, santifícame.

Cuerpo de Cristo, sálvame.

Sangre de Cristo, embriágame.

Agua del costado de Cristo, lávame.

Pasión de Cristo, confórtame.

¡Oh, buen Jesús!, óyeme.

Dentro de tus llagas, escóndeme.

No permitas que me aparte de Ti.

Del maligno enemigo, defiéndeme

En la hora de mi muerte, llámame.

Y mándame ir a Ti. Para que con tus santos te alabe.

Por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

IN REMEMBRANCE: KATHERINE DAVIS AND ELEANOR BROWN

It is with sadness that we share with you the deaths of Eleanor Brown and Katherine Marie Davis.

Eleanor Brown, a longtime parishioner of our parish, was a regular at our 9AM Mass many years. It was just before COVID that Eleanor moved into Casa de Flores where our homebound ministers continued to visit her. She died on April 15th at the age of 99-1/2 years old and is survived by her older sister, Letty, her children, grandchildren. Her photo with her son, Tom, is to the right. Many thanks to Tom for allowing us to use this photo.

Founding parishioner Katherine Marie Davis died on Tuesday, April 16th. Katherine and her husband, Gerald, raised their children in our parish. On Friday Gerald and his daughters came to the office and toured the church buildings.

Our prayers and condolences go out to the Brown and Davis families.
