PASTOR'S PAGE

The St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish bulletin is not only a medium for announcements and reminders. It is an instrument for Catholic action! This page is what it is all about. Here, the pastor makes parishioners aware of issues concerning parish life, or Diocesan life, or current Catholic issues. He then invites every faithful to action for the benefit of the whole Mystical Body of Christ, the Church.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

My message today is the Spanish translation of the statement of the Catholic Bishops of California printed in English in last Sunday's bulletin, October 18. As requested by Bishop Garcia, please find below the statement.

Inmensa preocupación por los pobres y vulnerables a la vez que los obispos católicos responden a la legalización del suicidio asistido por un médico en California

Los Obispos de California han publicado la siguiente declaración:

“La decisión de la Legislatura de California y del Gobernador Brown de poner a los californianos en riesgo al legalizar el que un médico prescriba una dosis mortal de fármacos, convierte en una farsa la compasión por los enfermos, el interés en los pobres y la protección de nuestros residentes más vulnerables.

“Como pastores y maestros, nuestra obligación primordial es expresar claramente y con convicción las verdades de nuestra fe para que nuestra gente católica pueda comprender en plenitud la enseñanza de la Iglesia sobre las situaciones que se dan al final de la vida. Esa enseñanza brinda gran consuelo y reconforta en los últimos momentos de vida de los pacientes y de las personas cercanas a ellos. Una mayor comprensión y valorización de nuestra enseñanza católica podría ofrecernos la paz y la dignidad que todos procuramos al acercarse la muerte. La Iglesia católica desea ofrecer a todos los californianos la belleza de nuestra enseñanza sobre el final de la vida, la efectividad de nuestros cuidados compasivos y la prudencia sólida de ejercer responsablemente la autonomía del paciente.

“Los preocupados opositores del suicidio asistido por un médico ya han iniciado el proceso para un referéndum. Les afirmamos y apoyamos en esa decisión. Como ciudadanos de este estado, todos tenemos el derecho y, recalcamos, la obligación de asegurarnos que se escuche la voz del pueblo, especialmente la de los más vulnerables. Esta también es la oportunidad para que reconozcamos a todos los hombres y mujeres de todo el Estado, quienes a través de sus organizaciones e individualmente, han trabajado incansablemente y caminaron juntos en su oposición al suicidio asistido por un médico en estos últimos meses. Les damos las gracias una vez más.

“La justicia y la promoción del bien común exigen que se considere debidamente cada recurso legal imaginable en contra de la desacertada legalización del suicidio asistido. Estamos llevando a cabo ese proceso en este momento. Como dijo el Papa Francisco en una reunión conjunta del Congreso de EE.UU. apenas el mes pasado:

Ustedes han sido llamados a defender y mantener la dignidad de sus conciudadanos en la exigente e incansable búsqueda del bien común, ya que este es el fin de todas las políticas. Una sociedad política perdura cuando procura, como vocación, satisfacer las necesidades comunes estimulando el crecimiento de todos sus integrantes, especialmente de los que corren mayores riesgos. La actividad legislativa siempre se basa en un interés por el pueblo.

“De nuevo preguntamos, ¿dónde está el interés cuando hay millones de californianos que no tienen acceso a atención médica asequible y compasiva? La alternativa de bajo costo que consiste de una dosis mortal de fármacos no constituye una alternativa adecuada y efectiva para los cuidados paliativos, el manejo del dolor y otros servicios médicos básicos.

THE MUSIC MINISTRY

by Susan Tuttle

Try to imagine weekend Mass without any music. No piano, no guitar, no voices raised in joyful worship of our Divine Lord. So much would be missing without the glory of music and song.

Music helps to center us, to focus our minds and thoughts. When combined with music, words have a way of corkscrewing deep within us, where they work their magic all week long. When we sing about love, we are more loving. When we sing about caring, we are more considerate of others. When we sing about—and to—God, we stand closer to Him.

Don't you just love it when a melody and/or words from one of the weekend's hymns reverberates in your mind all week long? When you find yourself humming the song and your spirit is uplifted because of it? I know I do.

Most of us in St. Elizabeth's small choir are not highly trained. We simply love to sing and play. Love to worship God in song. And we love to encourage others to lift their voices up in song. We welcome anyone who wants to sing, or can play a portable musical instrument, like guitar, horn, hand drums, violin, etc.

We have become a family, our music ministry. We squabble and tease and laugh and share ideas and work together to find the right harmonies, the right songs, the right musical scores to add depth and meaning to weekend Masses for everyone who attends. We love to hear everyone in the congregation singing with us. And we wish we had more musicians and singers to sing and play with us, especially during holiday times of the year—and particularly on Saturday, when there are only two musicians for the Mass.

Holidays and Saturdays are a bit tight for us. Family obligations often interfere with both the musicians' and singers' schedules; travel plans often take some of us out of town for a week or two at a time. (And illness can cut into our musical family all year round, too.) We know there are people in our extended St. Elizabeth's family who sing in the congregation (yes, we hear you!), or who play one kind of portable instrument or another. It would please us no end if you'd volunteer to sing or play with us, maybe only one Saturday or Sunday a month. Or during the Christmas holiday season. Or for Easter. Or whenever those aforementioned obligations or illnesses thin our ranks.

We rehearse for about an hour one evening a week, currently on Wednesdays at 5:30 pm at the church. Please come check us out, join us for a rehearsal or two and see if it fits your love of music.

But most of all, keep singing. As God tells us in the Bible, "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord." That's what we're all about, your music ministry: Spreading love and peace every week, joyfully.

OUR CONDOLENCES & PRAYERS TO THE FAMILY IN THIS MOMENT OF SORROW.

DÍA DE LOS MUERTOS

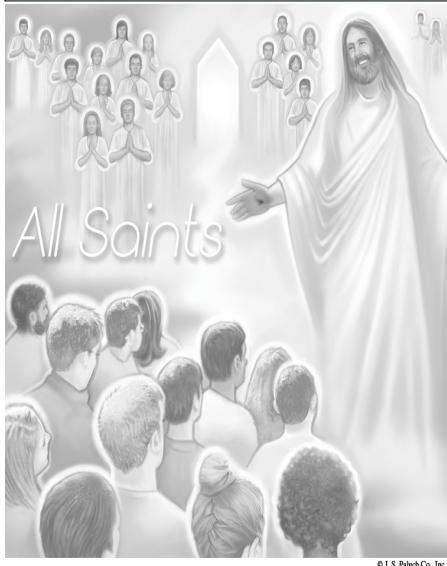

Originally an Aztec holiday, Día de Muertos is celebrated throughout Mexico and acknowledged by cultures around the world. It is a day where families pray for and remember their friends and family members who have died, and to help support their spiritual journey.

When the Spaniards colonized Mexico in the 16th century, the celebration of El Día de Muertos was moved from its celebration in August to coincide with the Roman Catholic calendar's Allhallowtide triduum between October 31 and November 2. Thus there are many Christian overtones in the celebrations of the Day of the Dead.

Generally on the first day of Día de Muertos, October 31, children made a children's altar to invite the angelitos, spirits of the dead children, to come back for a visit. November 1, All Saints Day, the adult spirits come to visit. On November 2, All Soul's Day, families go to the cemeteries to decorate the graves and tombs of their relatives. Families erect altars to honor their loved ones and include photos of their loved ones, angels, and sometimes crucifixes.

Cempasuchil known as marigolds, the flowers of the dead, seem to glow in the dark and light the path and remind us of the impermanence of life; pan de muertos, bread for the dead, and other foods like mole, tamales, or hot chocolate, whatever the deceased enjoyed is left on the altar for the essence and scent to be enjoyed by the dead; sugar skulls and cardboard skeletons are reminders of death and La Catrina; tissue paper decorations; fruits and nuts; incense and other traditional foods and decorations are also used in this three day fiesta. Altars may be lit with candles representing light, faith, and hope are used to light the way. Water is the last important element of the altar quenching the thirst of our loved ones, but also representing life and purity.

Guest Speakers

Gloria Gomez and Claudia Castorena, American immigrants from Mexico, had each witnessed and experienced an early life of poverty and struggle. Despite these hardships, they found ways to reach out to others and to consecrate their lives to God.

After living in the United States for 20 years, a spiritual friendship began to bloom when they met while working with their respective youth groups. Both sensed the Lord beckoning them to feed the hungry and care for the poor. On Christmas Day 1989, they served their first meal and founded Martha's Village and Kitchen.

Many years later, Gloria and Claudia felt called by the Lord to minister to the needy in the eastern Coachella Valley. They opened Galilee Center in July 2010, which presently provides for the needs of more than 700 families.

Their testimony describes their story of love, faith, and miracles. Come and be inspired by the incredible journey of two ordinary women who have answered God's call in a most extraordinary way.

COMMENTS ABOUT THE 2015 INT'L. FESTIVAL FROM NEWSPAPERS

1. From BAY NEWS, Oct. 1-14, 2015 issue:

"...It's one of the best and least known foodies of the year." (with photos by Neil Farrell)

2. From THE TRIBUNE, Oct. 5, 2015 issue, by Linda Borders

"Over the weekend (of Sept. 27) I attended the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church International Festival in Los Osos.

I had never heard of this saint until President Barack Obama gave Pope Francis, on his recent visit to the United States, the original key to her house in Maryland. The house is now a national shrine.

What I found at the festival was a wonderful group of people from several ethnic groups celebrating their heritage with good food and entertainment.

As I looked at the faces in the crowd, it reminded me of my heritage (Swiss, Swedish and German) and what a wonderful melting pot America has become.

One Syrian refugee, who recently fled to Germany, said, "We still feel there are some people that love other people." As refugees are resettled to America in the coming years, I hope we will welcome them as our ancestors had in the past."
